Section 5 Cases Concerning the Determination of Property as Ownerless

Section 6 Confirmation of Mediation Agreement domiciled; if the defendant's place of domicile is different from the place of his or her habitual residence, the people's court in the place of his or her habitual residence shall have jurisdiction.

Article 26 Proceedings initiated in connection with disputes over the Article 41 The court president or the presiding judge shall designate a judge to serve as the presiding ju meets with the party or agent in violation of the relevant provisions, the parties shall ha

Article 57 A person with Article 60 If a party modifies or revokes the authority granted to its Article 78 Where a party objects to the expert opinion or where the

The provisions in Chapter IX of the Law concerning evidence preservation shall apply mutatis iis413( )-498(t)o(n)-48othenir prhcpres

Article 93 In trying civil cases, a people's court shall distinguish right

An agreement that does not require a written mediation statement shall

Article 111 If a participant in an action or another person commits any of the following acts, the people's court may fine him or detain him according to the seriousness of the case; if the act constitutes a crime, the person shall be prosecuted in accordance with the law:

1. forging or destroying important evidence, thereby obstructing the trial of the case by the people's court;

2. using violence, threats or subornation to prevent a witness from giving testimony, or instigating, suborning, or coercing others to commit perjury;

Article 113 Where the party subject to enforcement maliciously

Section 1 Institution and Acceptance of Actions provided that the ruling in question is a ruling by the people

At the opening of a trial hearing, the presiding judge shall check the parties present, announce the cause of action, the names of the judicial officers and the name of the court clerk, advise the parties of their procedural rights and obligations and inquire whether the parties wish to challenge any judicial officers.

Article 138 Investigation in court shall be conducted in the following order:

At the conclusion of the court debate, the presiding judge shall first ask the court clerk, and affixed with the seal of the people's court. An oral

Article 161 When trying a case by applying summary procedure, a people's court shall conclude the case within three months from the date of placing it on the docket.

Article 162 When trying a simple civil case prescribed in Item 1 of Article 157 of the Law, the subject amount of which is below thirty

If a party appeals directly to a people's court of second instance, such revoking or modifying the original judgment or ruling shall be made in accordance with law;

Section 2 Cases Concerning Voter Qualifications limited capacity for civil acts. If the applicant has already provided an expert opinion, the people's court shall examine such expert opinion.

Article 189 When a people's court tries a case for determining a citizen the principle of voluntary participation or that the content of the mediation agreement violates the law. If the people's court finds the evidence to be true upon examination, it shall retry the case.

Article 202 A party may not apply for retrial of a case where a legally effective judgment or mediation statement has been made to dissolve a marriage.

Article 212 When a people's procuratorate decides to lodge an objection against a judgment, ruling or mediation statement made by a people's court, it shall prepare a written objection.

Article

Article 225 Any party or interested party may submit a written objection be made of its particulars, which shall be signed or sealed by the persons present.

The people's court may establish execution authorities as needed.

judgment or ruling against the property provided as security by the person subject to execution or the property of his guarantor.

Article 232 When a citizen subject to execution dies, his debts shall be repaid fr

When ad

the place of residence of the person subject to execution or the place where the property is concealed.

The court presidents shall issue a search warrant when adopting any of the foregoing measures.

The people's court shall send personnel to transport the property removed from the house from which the person subject to execution was evicted to a designated location for delivery to the person subject agent

Article 272 If a party applies for preservation, the arbitration institution between the two parties, re-apply to the arbitration institution for